Movavi Video Editor 20.1.0 Crack [Free Download]Q: How to check if an NSString is empty with a variable amount of characters? Ok, so I have a different string that I want to strip from the front of my string when I run a function. The variable number of characters will vary based on the input of the user. I know how to check if an NSString is empty but i'm not sure how to check if it is filled with a variable number of characters. I need it to check the entire NSString. So, for example, I have the input: " Test Test2 " How would i check if
